Week Fourteen

"Kindness is the language which the deaf can hear and the blind can see." Mark Twain

Let's read about one chapter a day. This week, we'll read pages 223-248.

Warm-up question!

Have you ever been in a play or done some acting? If so, tell your class about it. If not, what's a movie you wish you could be an actor in?

New words! Did you discover some new words this week? Write the word below, along with the definition. Then, try and use the word in an original sentence.

Thought questions!

What are some of the reasons Miranda changed over the summer?

Why did Miranda say she was sick and not appear in the play?

In the chapter "After the Show", why do you think Miranda said she "...for the first time in a very, very long time, felt absolutely happy"?

The best stuff!
