Week Fifteen

"Kindness and faithfulness keep a king secure, through kindness his throne is made secure." King Solomon

Let's read about one chapter a day. This week, we'll read pages 249-262.

Warm-up question!

If you were a king or queen, how would you rule over your country?

Thought questions!

On page 252, August says, "...in middle school you kind of get known for what you are into..." What are you into? Share two things you are into and why you are into them.

Who is Baboo? Do you have, or had, your own Baboo?

Have you ever been on an overnight school trip? If so, what were some of your favorite memories?

The best stuff!
