Thought questions!

Near the bottom of page 91, Via says, "I just don't always want to be defined that way." What does she mean by this? How do you think she wants to 'be defined'?

On page 99, Via talks about finding her mother at Auggie's door in the middle of the night. Why do you think she was there? How does Via feel about it?

What is the family arguing about on pages 100-102? Does your family ever have conversations like this?

The best stuff!
